In Western Australia from 2011 to 2015 there were 854 deaths due to transport.

Hospitalisations: 2011-2015: 38,821
Male: 69.2%
Age range: 25-44 experienced the highest rate of hospitalisations.

Cost: 2015 approximate $33,958 bed days, $71,162,481.

Accounts for: 6.92% of hospitalisations by external causes.

In Western Australia Aboriginal people make up 3.1% of the population, however 7.05% of transport hospitalisations were Aboriginal People between 2011 and 2015.

References:
Data generated using HealthTracs Reporting, by the Epidemiology Branch, WA Department of Health in collaboration with the Cooperative Research Centre for Spatial Information (CRC-S), October 2017.